Select Bibliography for Yossel Birstein
Andrew Firestone (2007)

His Yiddish works only
1. Unter fremde himlen (46 poems, 75pp.) (York Press, Melbourne, 1949)
2. Oyf shmole trotuarn (novel, 300 pp.) (i.l.peretz forlag, Tel Aviv, 1958)
3. A mantl fun a prints (10 stories, 166pp) (i.l.peretz forlag, Tel Aviv, 1969) (publ in Italian trans.1996)

Translated or reworked from Heb into Y.:
1. Der Zamler (novel, 224pp) (1985 publ. S&R Hurvich) - reworked from his Hebrew novel haMotvim, which was later re-published as haVorsa.
2. Dayne geselekh Yerushalayim – kleyne mayses (1989 Kibutz ha Mokhad, Tel Aviv) 285pp (illustrated by his daughter) - reworked from the Hebrew short stories. (German trans, from H. publ, in 2002).

Link to complete bibliography:
http://library.osu.edu/sites/users/galron.1/00025.php

Translations
Birstein’s prose has been translated into German Chinese Italian and English – his story “Fuchs was old” can be read in Israel: a traveler’s literary companion (1996), eds. M Gluzman and N Seidman.

About his work:

see in English the Ha’aretz obituary, 29 Dec 2003.

====================================